

It is our view, the amount of red tape and unnecessary lengthy delays associated with planning assessments of Development Applications at Local Government (Council) level is considered unproductive and detrimental to business and communities.